

Early Childhood Centenary Conference

Music in Early Childhood Education

for all Early Childhood teachers, practitioners and students

at St Paul's Waldorf School
1 St Paul's Rd, London N1 2QH

Saturday, November 14th 2026
9:00-17:45

for more details and to book tickets, go to <https://buytickets.at/waldorfuk/2292895>

Programme

Guest speaker: Philipp Reubke

Pedagogical Section, Goetheanum, Dornach, Switzerland

Born in 1960, Philipp attended Waldorf schools in Stuttgart and Berlin before studying philosophy, literature and education in Germany and France. A Waldorf educator in France since 1989, he worked as a kindergarten teacher from 1995–2017 and served on the IASWECE Coordinating Group from 2010–2020.

Workshops

The Town Musicians: homemade instruments for a town band - Jill Taplin, NESWEC

Using Instruments with Children - Julia Allan, St Paul's Waldorf School

Singing with Babies - Dorothy Marlen, Gentle Beginnings, York

Singing with the 2-year-old child: Meeting the young child through song - Amelia Errazuriz & Anna Cochran, Michael Hall Waldorf School

Voice & Harmony Singing - Sophie Sterckx, Choir Leader and Choral Composer, Stroud
Workshop on the Pentatonic Harp - Katharina Bues, Anthroposophical Music Therapist, Forest Row

Music in Early Childhood Education - Philipp Reubke, Pedagogical Section, Goetheanum

Followed by a celebratory afternoon tea and a performance of the fairytale "The Firebird and Princess Vassilissa" by the Peredur Eurythmy Ensemble.

Waldorf UK member (staff): £75
Student (on Waldorf course): £50
Non Member: £110

Early Bird discounts: 15% if booked by 31 July, 10% if booked by 30 Sept

Waldorf
UK100

Celebrating 100 years of Waldorf education in the UK